

BALL SCREEN ACTION

Figure 1: (4) sets a wide pin-down screen for (3). (2) hits (3) and then cuts to the opposite corner. (5) screens away for (1). (1) sprints off the screen hoping to create a bad closeout by the defender.

Figure 2: (4) sets a ball screen for (1). The floor is spread for (1) to attack the rim or hit the open offensive player.
